Appendix I.I.: GENERAL GUIDANCE NOTES RELEVANT TO AN APPLICATION FOR INDIVIDUAL MEMBERSHIP, February 2007

Introduction

The IAAP was formed in 2001 with the following aims and objectives:

- To set standards for National Associations who wish to be recognised as members of the IAAP within the Medical Section of the School of Spiritual Science.
- To represent, at international level, Anthroposophic Medicine including regulatory and legal affairs from the professional pharmacists perspective: Anthroposophic Pharmacy being seen as an "extension" of conventional pharmacy.
- To award international accreditation of Anthroposophic Pharmacists training materials and publications.
- To facilitate collegueship between Anthroposophic Pharmacists world-wide by the active building of community between Anthroposophic Pharmacists
- To liase with:
 - Other disciplines in the Medical Section, in the School of Spiritual Science
 - Other sections in the School of Spiritual Science
 - Recognised National Anthroposophic Pharmacists Associations
 - National Pharmacists Associations seeking recognition by IAAP
 - Other interest groups related to anthroposophic pharmacy.

For the purpose of:

organising workshops/conferences

widening Anthroposophic Pharmacy awareness, especially in retail pharmacists research into Anthroposophic pharmaceutical matters

- To act as a centre of information for individual Anthroposophic Pharmacists and Pharmacists Associations to share best practice world-wide.
- To act as an initiator/co-ordinator for activities which require international action.
